

Elizabeth Ruiz

Elizabeth Ruiz is a part-time evening news anchor at KLRN. She retired from radio news after a 40-year career at KTSA/KTFM where she covered the police beat, city hall, the courthouse, and special events, including:

The Papal visit and several Presidential visits. Liz also traveled outside the city to cover National Republican and Democratic conventions, tornados, hurricanes and the Mexico City earthquake. to the aftermath of a massive earthquake in Mexico City.

Liz also hosted a weekend show titled “Sunday Live with Liz” and was a co-host on “The Ware Pair with Liz” weekday program.

She has devoted countless hours to helping nonprofit organizations and serving as Mistress of Ceremony at hundreds of events, including Fiesta San Antonio activities, City Parks and Recreation shows, Air Force Band of the West concerts, the Veterans Day Parade and the San Antonio City Council Inauguration Ceremony.

She’s a graduate of John F. Kennedy High School in the Edgewood Independent School District. She earned a Bachelor of Music Education Degree from Trinity University and worked as a choir director and assistant band director at Burbank High School before studying journalism at San Antonio College and launching her career in radio.

Honors and recognitions include:

- The San Antonio Association of Hispanic Journalists Henry Guerra Lifetime Achievement Award
- Edgewood Hall of Fame
- San Antonio Woman’s Hall of Fame
- San Antonio Radio Hall of Fame
- Texas Radio Hall of Fame
- Order of the Cascaron (awarded to outstanding Fiesta volunteers)
- Image de San Antonio Outstanding Hispanic Woman Role Model
- Recipient of the Governor’s Yellow Rose of Texas