

Orlando Gaitan

Orlando Gaitan is a highly skilled visual coordinator, choreographer, and former Mr. Gay Texas. He has a wealth of experience working with high school marching bands, color guards, dance teams, and musical theatre productions. With over 20 years of experience, Mr. Gaitan's talents have earned him multiple accolades, that he shares with his students, including multiple state championships for Winter Guard Competitions, and top color guard recognitions for marching band season. Mr. Gaitan is a true professional, always going above and beyond to ensure everyone is well-prepared for their performance, and the audience enjoys the production. Whether it's working with a high school marching band or choreographing a dance routine for a musical theatre production, Mr. Gaitan brings his unique talent, visual creativity, and aesthetic to every project he works on and is excited to be serving as judge for the Fiesta Flambeau Parade.
