

Kasey Kelly Allen

Meet Kasey Kelly Allen, a vivacious and skilled event planning professional with a zest for life. Currently working her magic as part of the Parks and Recreation Department for the City of Hutto, Kasey is known for her dynamic and innovative approach to creating unforgettable experiences.

With an impressive background in event management, Kasey's expertise, and charisma shine through in every project she takes on. Her most recent role as Executive Director of the highly successful Midland County Fair has only solidified her reputation as a top-notch event planner.

She successfully earned the prestigious Certified Festival and Event Executive credentials last year.

Aside from her love for executing flawless events, Kasey also has a strong passion for healthy living. She promotes the benefits of fancy water (because hydration is key) and regularly practices yoga to maintain balance and mindfulness in her busy lifestyle.

What sets Kasey apart is her impeccable attention to detail coupled with a creative flair that knows no bounds. She pours her heart and soul into each event she plans, ensuring that every aspect is thoughtful, unique, and leaves a lasting impression on attendees.

In short, Kasey Kelly Allen is not your average event planner. She is an extraordinary individual who brings energy, enthusiasm, and innovation to everything she does. Get ready to be amazed by what this dynamic professional can create!
